Please mark your calendar!

Parents are especially encouraged to join their children during scheduled class times. Look for the Book Fair Class Schedule on the website.

The faculty will once again be invited to select “Wish” books for their classrooms that families can choose to purchase. Here’s how it works:

1. Find your teacher’s Classroom Wish Box at the Book Fair.
2. Select a book from the box and purchase it at the checkout table. Your child can then give it directly to the teacher.
3. If your teacher’s box is empty, you may instead purchase a Gift Certificate.
4. The Library Wish Box will also have some great books that would be wonderful to have in the All Saints collection. (This is another alternative if your teacher’s box is empty.)

We always get an amazing response to faculty and Library wishes. Everyone appreciates it very much!

Don’t miss two popular Book Fair features:

The Pajama Storytime for grades K – 3 will have two special guests; Mrs. Iannazzo and Mrs. Gordan. This year, it will be held at 6:30PM in the Gym while the Book Fair is open Wednesday night, March 10. Don’t miss it!

The Fair will again offer “One for Books”. It’s a great way to help more children have a chance to own new books. At checkout, you may choose to donate an additional $1.00 that will be used to purchase books from our Book Fair and distribute them to needy children in our community. Scholastic will match our donation by sending even more books to children in need.

We’re looking forward to making this year’s Book Fair another opportunity to encourage and share the joys of reading.

See you there!
